PREPARATIONS ON A GIGANTIC SCALE FOR SIEGE OF VERDUN

No News That Would Indicate That Either of Vast Armies Have Yielded at Any Important Point—Stated That New Battle Has Developed on Allies' Left Wing—Heaviest of German Artillery Being Transferred to Metz—Thousands of Lives Sacrificed to Place Monsters in Position.

London, Sept. 25.—From Perrone on the west to Lorraine, along a battle line that would take a pedestrian a fortnight to cover, there came to London during the forenoon today nothing to indicate that the vast armies which are conducting their operations virtually under ground, had yielded at any important point.

It has been said that a new battle has developed on the allies' left wing, but so far as London is concerned this as yet lacks official confirmation. There were also reports that the Germans have made gigantic preparations to renew the siege of Verdun.

The heaviest siege artillery, according to these reports, is being transported by the Germans from Metz and they are sacrificing thousands of lives in their endeavors to place these monsters in position. The plain to the east of Verdun, is said in London, to be strewn with 10,000 dead and 15,000 wounded, the result of repeated German advances which have followed each other with lightning like rapidity.

COMPARATIVE LULL IN CENTER.

Official statements bear out other reports that there has been a comparative lull through the center of the battle line (portions of this despatch have been told by the British censor) almost unbroken series of Russian victories, (another group of words taken out by the censor) then the situation there should come to a head perhaps before the termination of the present struggle in France.

While despatch from Vienna insist that the positions of the Austrian army are favorable as concentrated in their formations in Galicia, advice from Petrograd maintain that the Russians are only three marches from Grochow. To the north the Russians are said to be preparing to sweep on to Breslau in Galicia, but as this has been abandoned several times already, the British public is inclined to wait further developments before attaching too much importance to this statement.

Snow in Alsace.—Snow in Alsace and rain elsewhere brought home to Englishmen the terrible ordeal their men have undergone along the battle line in France, and thousands are answering the appeal for blankets and overcoats. The plea went out today for football players and other athletes to contribute old sweaters and other warm clothing for the troops. Virtually all the newspapers carry every day advertisements calling on non-commissioned officers to return the colors and aid in the training of recruits.

The very heavy loss of British officers is today a subject of much concern, editorially and otherwise, and if the present ratio of mortality is continued this loss of officers will be one of the most serious problems. The admiralty has issued an official list of the survivors of the cruisers Aboukir, Creus, and the Hogue, sunk in the North sea by a German submarine. This list, with the 44 officers previously reported safe, brings the total of survivors up to 829. This based on unofficial calculations, would leave a death toll of about 1,400, as each cruiser carried a crew of over 700 men.

First Notable Achievement.—While the sinking of these vessels is the first notable achievement of a submarine, or submarines, during any war, the naval expert of the Westminster Gazette points out today in a laudatory advertisement, the effectiveness of underwater craft. He states that the Aboukir was sinking very slowly when attacked and that the other two cruisers were stationary. "Submarine successes under such conditions add nothing," he writes. "To our present knowledge of the possibilities of torpedo warfare. Now do they carry out new threats to our battleships, not in the way which is very likely to be caught in the North sea by a German submarine."

Bramley-Moore Leaves for England and the Front

Well Known Edmontonian Will See Fighting in the Scenes with Which he was Familiar in Times of Peace—To Join British Regiment in London.

A Bramley-Moore, formerly member of the provincial legislature for Lloydminster and for the past two years very prominent in business and the local affairs of the city, left on the 10:15 P. M. train last night for London, England, with the intention of going to the front with one of the British regiments.

Although he has been many years in Canada, having lived some time in the province of Ontario before he came west, Mr. Moore is an Englishman by birth and his ancestral home is in Russell Square, London, where he will go before deciding which regiment he will join. In recent years he has traveled very extensively and is familiar with almost every city on the continent, having visited Paris, Brussels, Vienna, Berlin and practically all the Italian cities of consequence and with the country which is now the theater of war in France, he is almost as familiar as with his own province of Alberta. Mr. Moore has many personal friends in the German army, against which he will be fighting this winter and he may run into some of them before the war is over.

SWITZERLAND REFUSES GERMAN REQUEST MADE TO CROSS TERRITORY

Rome, Sept. 25.—The Giornale d'Italia publishes a report from Basel that Switzerland has refused a request from the Germans for permission to send three army corps across Swiss territory.

Alberta Will Give 5,000 Bags Flour to Plucky Little Belgium

The big, cosmopolitan province of Alberta will not be behind in showing its gratitude with many other parts of the civilized world, to the people of Belgium, who so gallantly and bravely resisted the "On-to-Paris" march of the Germans last month and gave the allies time to mobilize their armies.

The question of assisting the little kingdom in some way has been under consideration by the government for some time and on Friday afternoon Premier Sifton announced that the provincial government had decided to present, on behalf of the people of Alberta, 5,000 bags of Alberta flour to the Belgians.

Reuben Vimes, a Belgian consul at Calgary, and Maurice Kimphe, Belgian consul at Edmonton, had an interview with the premier and the other members of the government and furnished the cabinet with information as to the situation. The Alberta flour will be sent to the relief fund being raised in the dominion.

CANADA'S CONTINGENT ALREADY ON OCEAN ON ITS WAY TO THE FRONT

Vancouver Times, Sept. 25.—Canada's contingent is already on the way to the front. Admiral Wemyss, head of the fleet, ordered a powerful force of British war vessels and collected others at convenient places to make doubly sure that no stray German ships elude the slightest chance of doing damage or can in any way impede the passage of the transports. For days past there has been ample evidence here that the troops in camp have been preparing to move expeditiously as soon as the moment arrived.

More than a week ago the ships at Quebec were loading on war stores and ever since then there has been a steady flow from the camp Quebecwards and as the transports are fully loaded they steam seaward and pick up the British war vessels on the way, so that every little group of transports is accompanied on its journey by a protecting force fully able to secure it against attack. However, the transports are themselves armed with heavy guns.

BERLIN REPORT SAYS NO IMPORTANT ACTION IN THE WESTERN ARENA

Berlin, Sept. 25. (11:40 a.m.)—The following official announcement dated September 24 has been given out at army headquarters: "In the western theater of the war the situation remains unchanged. The German army is in a position of strength and is not in a position to make any important action in the western arena."

EDMONTON GIVING LIBERAL TOWARD TWO GREAT FUNDS

Amounts Definitely Donated First Day Out Total $22,749.—More Coming.

John Blue, campaign manager for patriotic and relief funds, and his worthy lieutenants are having a mighty busy time, and it is expected that Edmonton will do itself proud as a city of liberality in the next few days.

Not as was the response of $22,749 in the first day's campaign on behalf of the two funds, there is a considerable amount of money guaranteed by several of the leading establishments and institutions of the city. It has not yet been possible to appraise.

Edmonton's proportion of the Hudson's Bay company's magnificent donation of $25,000 cannot for a few days be announced. The local employees of the Bay store will contribute a sum of $2,000 and other magnificent donations from similar sources. These army corps have come from the center of the enemy's line and others from Lorraine and the Vosges. These last named corps were transported by rail to Cambrai, by way of Liege and Valenciennes. To the north of the river Aisne as far as Berry Au Bac there has been no change of position.

Ribecourt is about seven miles south-west of Cambrai, on the German line of communications.

ASKS PARCELS POST TO CARRY GRANDSON FROM EDMONTON TO ASQUITH

When an old lady, somewhat stooped with the weight of years, approached the post office at Edmonton last Friday morning and asked that the 6-year-old boy by her side might be sent parcel post to Asquith, Sag., that official's eyes opened wide in wonderment. He stood dazed for a moment, wondering if he had heard the old lady's request correctly, and put the question to the lady.

Yes, the little boy's name was George Lewis, and she was his grandmother. She had heard of the low rates of the parcel post and wished to have the lad sent to the Saskatchewan town by parcel post.

On the boy's arm was an express tag with his name and destination, but the old lady's question as to how much it would cost brought the information, that according to the postal regulations, human bodies were not allowed to be transported through the mail.

The post office official said he was sorry, but it was against the rules, and she would have to send the boy in the regular way, which would cost much more than she had thought, and more than she could easily afford.

And then she related to a number that had heard her story, of how she had been in the States when the parcel post was inaugurated there some three years ago, and how her son, the father of this boy, had been employed in California and such other countries.

"When the parcel post was first established several children were received in the mail, and they were sent to their destination, some of them being mere infants in arms," she said.

That was a misunderstanding of the rules, and the order was issued forbidding human bodies from the parcel post.

"ATHABASCA WHERE GREATEST ALBERTA OIL FIELDS EXIST"

California, now in Drilling Business Here and Golden Gate State, Not of the Kind Which Fades Away at Cry of Tight Money—Has Contract for Six Wells for the Manufacture of Oil and Gas, Also Working West of Inland and in South.

If there be any in Alberta where feet become cold, oil is not there, they are not men after the hearts of the real oil developers of California and such oil countries.

It is apparent that, after the full oil followed the wild boom of last summer, oil is slowly, but gradually and surely, again taking the place in the minds of men as a wonderful natural resource and magic money maker.

Such is the solemn assurance given the Capital at the Wilkirk hotel by A. J. Wilder, president and manager of the Midway Drilling company, of Los Angeles and Calgary and for 25 years an oil man in the south, who was here yesterday completing arrangements to drill the Moose Portage district for the manufacture of oil and gas company, limited, 125 Tepler block, a company which was not in the stock selling business during the boom and, therefore, has not been heard of much, but which has already signed contracts for drilling northwest of Athabasca, one of the seven fields in which it has holdings.

California Like Athabasca

Mr. Wilder, although his Canadian branch is in Calgary, is more enthusiastic about what California and other southern states call the Athabasca fields—practically all the country north of this city than any other in Canada.

"That's where you'll see the real oil strike made yet," he said. "That's the country which the real oil operators in California, Texas and Mexico are talking about, notwithstanding that many of them are interested in the Calgary fields. They know, of course, that it takes time, especially in a new country, to find and ship real oil, but there seems to be absolutely no doubt in their minds that oil will be found there in large quantities."

The people up here are too impatient. They apparently believe that they should be pumping oil in a couple of months after the first indications were found; when, as a matter of fact, it will take about a year to do so. Remember, there are no transportation facilities in some parts and all the machinery has to be shipped in from Pittsburgh or Chicago.

Looks for Big Development

"It looks for big oil developments in the Athabasca country next spring, in fact, I have contracts for drilling wells for one company alone up there. Mark my words, the next big money will be made in oil, right here in Alberta."

Es-Commissioner John Glaisers was present at the commissioners' meeting Friday but took no hand in the voting. He has not yet received notice of the date when his resignation is to take effect.

C.P.R. Will Proceed With Work To Help Unemployment Situation

Orders have been issued from Canadian Pacific headquarters to go ahead with considerable work all over the country, which otherwise would have been left over for a year or more.

A statement was made at the meeting that the complete ballasting of the new line between Monitor and Kerrobert.

SNOW STORM STOPS THE FIGHTING IN LORRAINE

Cessation of Russian Attack on Retreating Austrians is Reported.

London, Sept. 25.—(10 a.m.)—The weather conditions which were exceptionally favorable to modern military operations during the first six weeks of the war, having now changed radically and are in the main responsible for the lull prevailing in all the war areas, with the exception of the combined Montenegrin and Serbian assaults on the coast provinces of Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Accompanying the reports of bad weather comes the continuous news of the presence of disease. Hungary has acknowledged an outbreak of the cholera among her troops, and while it was denied officially, the same source is said to have attacked the Serbian troops. General epidemics of milder diseases may be expected in the western battle areas, where troops on both sides, drenched by rain, are lying in flooded trenches.

The operations in Alsace Lorraine are said to have come to a complete stop on account of snowstorms. Italy and floods are reported also from the scene of the Gallipoli operations, and probably account for the cessation of the Russian attack on the retreating Austrians. Storm conditions will interfere greatly with motor transports and troops taking the offensive may be greatly handicapped by inability to bring up their artillery.

GIRL'S HANDS CUT OFF BY BARBARIANS

American Tells of Horrible German Atrocity to Belgian Child.

New York, Sept. 25.—Captain W. J. Roberts, of the American liner New York, who is in the city of Liverpool, said that his ship had been in Liverpool when it was carrying a little Belgian girl whose hands had been cut off by German soldiers.

"She is a pretty, flaxen haired little thing about six years old," the captain said, "and I cannot understand how any man could commit such a barbarous act on an innocent child."

Paris, Sept. 25.—(4:25 a.m.)—The Matin publishes a despatch from Basel, Switzerland, credited to the Fourmire, which says that the Germans in flight from Lorraine declare that they left the attack on the entrenched camp of Verdun, Austrian and German artillery, had 10,000 dead and 15,000 wounded. Many of the wounded died where they stood.

SERBS REPULSE ENEMY WHO ATTEMPTS PASSAGE DANUBE NEAR BELGRADE

Paris, Sept. 25.—(8:30 a.m.)—A despatch to the Havas agency from Nish says: "Desperate battles were fought Sept. 22 along the front of Severn-Lomnica and the front of Mitrovica-Shabatz, the situation being favorable to the Serbians."

Upon the front of the Save river the enemy opened an attack with 100 heavy guns. On the island of Zlatibor and at Zlatibor the enemy attempted attacks in the direction of Mitrovica and Zlatibor, which were repulsed.

"On the nights of September 21 and 22, the enemy began an artillery fire on the city of Belgrade, the fortress and the wharves of the Save, but their efforts to cross the Danube near Belgrade and Vershera failed."

REPORTED FIVE GERMAN AIRSHIPS CAPTURED BY FRENCH CAVALRY PATROL

London, Sept. 25.—The correspondent of the Daily Telegraph in France says: "There is considerable elation in the allied lines over the capture of five German aeroplanes by a French cavalry patrol."

"Twenty cavalry men, penetrating into a thickly wooded country, entered a clearing where the five aeroplanes were. The aviators and a number of machine-gunners at the time were engaged in evaluating five Zeppelin aeroplanes. The patrol made a dash to round up the lot, but met with fierce resistance and 12 cavalrymen were killed before the aeroplanes were taken. Their aeroplanes never will fly again."

The German government from Breslau to Berlin, it is said, was stopped in order to prevent information of the serious situation being sent.

This is learned from a German newspaper received here. No mention is made of his successor, General von Stein, who has been given another appointment. SACRIFICING MASSES MEN TO GAIN QUICK ADVANTAGE

Paris Believes Long and Steady Siege at Some Points Take Place.

Paris, Sept. 25.—According to information reaching the French capital this morning, the Germans are continuing their desperate resistance against the advance of the allies in the north. This advance was first on Nov. 24 miles to the east of Amiens and then on Peronne, 20 miles north of Roy.

It was only by a continuous raking artillery fire and hard fighting that the French and British troops were able to continue their advance against the vigorous defence of the enemy. The left wing of the allies now occupies positions between the River Oise and the river Somme, which were traversed by the Germans during their advance.

Such further advances as may be necessary to correct and inaccuracies of the line of the front are being made. The German line is being broken up by the allies' advance.

The left wing of the allies now occupies positions between the River Oise and the river Somme, which were traversed by the Germans during their advance.

Such further advances as may be necessary to correct and inaccuracies of the line of the front are being made. The German line is being broken up by the allies' advance.

It is only by a continuous raking artillery fire and hard fighting that the French and British troops were able to continue their advance against the vigorous defence of the enemy. The left wing of the allies now occupies positions between the River Oise and the river Somme, which were traversed by the Germans during their advance.

Such further advances as may be necessary to correct and inaccuracies of the line of the front are being made. The German line is being broken up by the allies' advance.

VERSATILITY OF PLAYERS

Guy Harrington's versatility was demonstrated in no uncertain way in the Empire theatre last night in the presentation of "The Talker" by The Players. His part of Harry Lennox is probably the most pleasing one that has been seen in locality. He has excellent lines and lots of opportunities and he is splendidly supported.

The production is described as a new play with new thoughts presented in a new way. The description fits well. The new woman is introduced but before the conclusion she proves herself to be the lovable old fashioned one that is so often read about but so seldom seen. Her earlier "Conventions" instilled into the mind of her sister-in-law leads to that young lady's downfall. Her repentence is sincere. Wayward sister returns and the curtain drops with everybody happy.

Comment has often been made on the widely different type of plays presented by The Players and their undoubted cleverness in mastering each one, notwithstanding this fact, the audience last night, got another surprise. It is hard to find fault indeed to improve on the production. The scenery is splendid and there does not appear to have been a single chance missed to make every thing realistic.

Miss Brandt and Guy Harrington are becoming well known in Edmonton to say that the very excellent artists. All the necessary to state is that they have for the end of the week got a really good vehicle and that they handle it as well as ever. The leading lady was remarkably good in the opening stages as a new woman. Carl Gillen also has a word of praise coming to him. His handling of the part of Mr. Fells would be hard to beat.

Miss Desele MacAlister, as Ruth was exceptionally fine in the emotional parts, while Miss Edith Cooner as the inquisitive girl more than made good.

SATURDAY LAST TIME

"Hello Bill" sounds pretty friendly, but when you see it as presented by the Lyceum Players it is more than friendly. It is so screamingly funny that you forget all your troubles and worries, war or no war, the fact is, the Lyceum Players can destroy the blues more quickly than any other comedy on the stage.

The tale concerns a general in the United States army who, during the Spanish-American war, is called to the front for actual service, also a man about town, by the same name, William Fuller. Bill gets into a poker him by a kind, but thoughtless, he tells his wife he is General Fuller and must go to war. He leaves to serve his time, and when the war begins as the real general shows up, the Lyceum Players have demonstrated their ability before this in handling the respective roles. "Hello Bill" is one of the best laughs in town, and can be thoroughly recommended.

For next week's offering the Lyceum Players will be seen in the delightful comedy drama of the west, "Sunday and the Boys," which will give several members of the cast unusual opportunities for individual work.

INDIAN ROMANCE LEADS

EMPIRE FILM PROGRAM

A very pretty written, and as pretentious, Indian romance story is told by the feature production shown Friday and Saturday at the Empire theatre. Princess Mona Darkfeather, the famous Indian, exerts the leading female role and it furnishes her with most splendid opportunity for intelligent and superb acting. The fresh news from the front is told in the war slides shown on the Empire screen. They are very much appreciated by the audience and say a good deal for the thoughtfulness of the management.

AMATEUR NIGHT ONCE

MORE AT THE BIJOU

Amateur night is the special attraction Friday at the Bijou. The management has been trying to arrange a strong program of amateur talent and says that there will be as much fun and sport and old fashioned entertainment this evening as ever there was at any of these most popular attractions.

"Neath the Lion's Paw," is the stellar film offering. It is a three-part production, developing a story of the most interesting interest. The picture is replete with thrilling and stirring episodes some of the most miraculous in fact that have ever been seen in a film here for some time. One of the scenes shows a thief escaping by jumping to telegraph wires that stretch across the street and bounding himself, thereby landing on the roof of the adjoining property and making his getaway.

Another hair-raising scene is the course of a number of wild lions into the room of the heroine, where she is attacked by one of the beasts which begins mauling her and is killed not a second too early, by a bullet from

THE PANICKY HASTE TO UPSET THE STANDARD OF LIVING

If, by the stand they have taken, the firemen have managed to center attention upon the unwisdom—not to say injustice—of an arbitrary and wholesale reduction of wages they have done something for which they are entitled to a hearty vote of thanks. Their situation as protectors of the property of the public makes it difficult, it is true, to do the thing which they have done, but somebody had to do it and the peculiar situation in which the firemen are placed by the nature of their occupation and the necessity of their continued service helps wonderfully to point the morality.

Owing to good counsels on both sides there has grown up in the city of Edmonton in recent years something in the nature of a peace pact between employer and employee, the pact having had its basis in toleration, negotiation and arbitration. As a result of this broad-spirited consideration Edmonton has been allowed to almost forget that such a thing as a wage question has any tangible existence, the public dropping into the comfortable thoughtlessness of regarding the industrial struggles which shake other cities as something only remotely possible in this.

Now, in the face of a condition which all are asked to believe will soon right itself, and without consideration of how toilsomely and conscientiously this neutrality has been built up nor how intimately it affects the lives of thousands of people, there suddenly arises a panicky haste to upset the whole thing lest somebody be left in enjoyment of what he earns at a time when the price of real estate is falling and wealth in city lots becomes a drug on the market.

There is an unfairness and unreasonableness about this which those who are dependent upon a weekly wage check will not be slow to see and which, seeing, will lead them into a different mental attitude when the present situation has cleared and the question again comes up for consideration. This much, at least, they will be quick to point out: that the distraction brought about by the mention of war has been due not to any lowering of the value of their services, but to the inevitable culmination of an era of exploitation which had its origin long before the thought of war and which had passed its zenith months before war was declared. This being the case, they will be likely to ask why they should be required to shoulder the consequences of the failure of speculations in which they, as wage earners had no part and which, in any event, meant higher rents and more onerous conditions for them had they turned out well.

The question is a very large one and one which should not be handled blindly. In it are all the elements of unrest, discord and social disturbance. A balance having been struck, a standard of living established, to upset it precipitately is to bring a train of troubles which radiate into every line of business and public and private activity, affecting the groceryman, the butcher, the landlord, the theater, the electric light and street railway receipts, the coal dealer, everyone and everything. These considerations, and the consideration that to slash a standard of living leads almost inevitably to a struggle for its re-establishment, should be taken into consideration by every employer, the city, the province, the corporations and the individual, and by every public-spirited citizen, and before any large reductions are made there should be very careful enquiry as to whether the compulsory economies cannot be affected by a reduction in staff or in hours without a tampering with the wage and salary scales upon which the standard of living in the community is indubitably predicted.

THE INVIOLENT LAW WHICH ESCAPED WILHELM'S NOTICE

Somebody has said that man is not punished for his sins but by them.

When the Germans opened their war for the military supremacy of the world it was their purpose to deliver a crushing blow against France; then turn on Russia and repeat with success what Napoleon attempted to the loss of his imperial power.

This was the German strategy, as mapped out by the ghoul of Berlin many years ago, and in accordance with which the German autocracy has arranged every detail, was planned upon the basis of an aggressive war.

To carry out the plan Germany did not hesitate to violate the neutrality of Belgium, to the guaranteeing of which the German nation had pledged its word. The advantage which this violation of a pledge offered Germany arose from the fact that France, believing that Germany would keep its pledge, had not fortified the Belgian frontier. Now, having opened up Belgium as a highway for the clashing armies, Germany is about to be forced back across the Belgian frontier on their own side where the lack of fortifications is about to make them as vulnerable to attack as they found the French.

Had the Germans kept the faith in this they would have placed themselves in the position where the French could not have invaded them from Belgium except at the cost of the good-opinion of the civilized world; something which Germany is commencing to realize is a valuable asset.

Also, had the Germans not been obsessed with the madness for an aggressive war, but been content to employ their military genius in preparing for the defense of their country, their eastern country would not now be as open as it is to the advance of the Russian legions.

Germany forgot that the pendulum swings as far one way as it does the other; that the penalty which they would be compelled to pay for the invasion of their neighbors' territories was the invasion of their own. There is an implacable equation in the affairs of men and nations which none can escape. This inviolable law, expressed in the prophet's axiom that "he who lives by the sword shall die by the sword," must have escaped Wilhelm's notice when he was searching the scriptures for the inspiration which, in his madness, convinces him that he is in rapport with God.

BABY ALL COVERED WITH ECZEMA

Could Not Sleep Day or Night. Itched and Burned Terribly. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured in a Month. Also Cured Mother of Salt Rheum.

Quarville, N. B.—"For a month after my baby was born he could not sleep day or night with eczema. He was all covered with small watery pimples which would break in a day or two and leave a burning scab and would itch and burn terribly. He cried so much that he made sores. His skin burned all the time and when the scab came off it left little marks like chicken-pox. At last I saw Cuticura Soap and Ointment advertised. After the first application he rested easier. I applied the Cuticura Ointment lightly and after an hour I would wash him with Cuticura Soap. After a month's treatment he was cured. "I was greatly troubled with salt rheum on my hands. They broke out in little watery pimples and would be so itchy I could tear them to pieces. I used Cuticura Soap and Ointment. After the first application they went up and cracked and when I put them in water the disease would eat in to the bones. They were so painful I had to keep them tied up with cotton rags. I could not do any work. One box of Cuticura Ointment with the Cuticura Soap cured them." (Signed) Mrs. Gratian, July 21, 1913. Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Ointment are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. For a liberal free sample of each, with 25-cent, send post-card to Potter Drug & Chem. Corp., Dept. D, Boston, U. S. AUSTRO-GERMAN EFFORTS TO HOLD RUSSIANS FAILED

Germany Withdrawing From Russia to Make Final Effort To Hold Invaders.

FORCE OF COSSACKS IS ALREADY NEAR CRAWOW

Large Austrian Field Force Still Resisting South and West of Przemyśl.

London, Sept. 25.—Despatches from Rome, Petrograd and Amsterdam up to last night, confirm intimations that all attempts to hold the Russians within Galicia and Poland until the combat in the west is decided have failed, and that the Germans are withdrawing from Russian territory and are combining with such Austrian forces as have escaped capture and disintegration in a final effort to block the Russians from Prussia and Silesia. It is now certain that the Russian advance is a double movement. A great army is moving westward and southward from Warsaw for the purpose of striking at Ypres, while another army is entering from Galicia by the collapse of Austrian resistance and is co-operating by an advance against Czarow. It is conservatively estimated that the Russian strength in the two armies is not less than 1,000,000 this exclusive of the reserves held to guard Galicia and Russian Poland. There are reliable reports also that Russia having now at the front troops enough for the invasion of Germany, is assembling a second line of 2,000,000.

Details supporting such progress of the Russian advance were supplied by the correspondents of Rome and London newspapers. The Petrograd correspondent of the Central News cables via Rome that a force of Cossacks is already near Czarow, the gateway to Silesia. It is assumed this cavalry is many miles in advance of the main army in Galicia, but the presence of Cossack so far westward emphasizes the swiftness of the Russian movement.

The Russian minister of war announced yesterday that the Russian advance force through Galicia had arrived at the river Wistoka which runs north and south about five miles east of Czarow and crosses the main line of the railway from Lemberg to the German frontier. It is asserted also that a large Austrian field force is still resisting south and west of Przemyśl now being bombarded by the Russians. The routed Austrians have retreated toward Czarow in an attempt to combine with the Germans.

Prohibited From Canada.
 New York, Sept. 25.—The publishers of the Fatherland, a weekly paper issued here for the purpose of creating sentiment in America favorable to Germany, received a letter from Postmaster Morgan yesterday notifying them that the paper has been placed on the list of publications prohibited from transmission by post in Canada and requesting the publishers to see that no further newspapers are mailed hereafter to Canada.

Avoid Political Contest.
 London, Sept. 25.—To avoid a political contest at this time for the Lord Mayorship of Edinburgh university, for which Sir Edward Carson and Sir John Allister Simon had been chosen candidates, Lord Kitchener was invited to become the rectifier, and accepted.

"On and after Sunday, the 27th September, Street Cars will stop only at poles painted with a white band."

FRENCH CANADIAN REGIMENT RAISED WITH NEXT FORCE

Movement Led by Lemieux Has Support of Both Liberals and Conservatives.

Ottawa, Sept. 25.—Quebec has a distinctively French Canadian expeditionary force. The movement led by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, with its active co-operation and assistance of Sir Wilfrid Laurier, and prominent French Canadian regiment for active service has received the approval of the minister of militia and will be endorsed by the government. A detachment which was to await on Sir Robert Borden tomorrow in regard to the matter, has been asked to wait for a few days on account of his temporary illness. There is no doubt, however, but that the government will meet the desire of French Canadians to have a regiment of their own at the front, corresponding to the Welsh, Irish and Scottish regiments of the motherland.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier has written to Sir Robert Borden urging the desirability of providing every facility for meeting the wishes of the hundreds of French Canadians anxious to enlist in a regiment officered by men of their own language. One of the difficulties in recruiting in Quebec has apparently been the fact that most of the officers selected for command of the French Canadian regiments are English speaking. The representation of the French-Canadians on the first expeditionary force now ready to leave Valcartier is much greater than has generally been supposed. There are upwards of 2,500 French speaking Canadians with the first contingent, but since the majority of these have been drafted with the English, speaking units they do not make as large a showing as if they had been mobilized in French speaking regiments.

REPORTED ITALIAN WARSHIPS SUNK BY STRIKING MINES

New York, Sept. 25.—Dow, Jones and Co., a Wall Street agency, published the following today on its ticker: "Milan, Italy. The Trieste correspondent of the Corriere della Sera reports that three Italian torpedo boats and one torpedo boat destroyer struck mines off the Dalmatian coast and sank."

Sounds Timely Warning.
 Petrograd, Sept. 25.—Abdul Hamid, former sultan of Turkey, has warned the committee of union and progress that Turkey will be lost if she enters upon a war against Russia. Word has reached here from Constantinople that Adrianople is short of provisions.

A PROPHECY

Count Tolstoi's Prophetic Words a Few Hours Before His Death

"This is a revelation of events of a universal character, which must shortly come to pass. Their spiritual outlines are now before my eyes. I see floating upon the surface of the sea of human fate the huge silhouette of a nude woman. She is—with her beauty, her poise, her smile, her jewels—a super-Venus. Nations rush madly after her, each of them eager to attract her especially. But she, like an eternal courtesan, flirts with all. In her hair ornaments of diamonds and rubies is engraved her name, 'Commercialism.' As alluring and as bewitching as she seems, much destruction and agony follow in her wake.

"And behold, she has three gigantic arms with three torches of universal corruption in her hand. The first torch represents the flame of war, the second torch bears the flame of bigotry and hypocrisy, and the third torch is that of the law.

"The great conflagration will start about 1912, set by torch of the first arm in the countries of Southeastern Europe. It will develop into a destructive calamity in 1913. In that year I see all Europe in flames and bleeding. I hear the lamentations of huge battlefields. But about the year 1915 a strange figure from the North—a new Napoleon—enters the stage of the bloody drama. He is a man of little military training, a writer or journalist, but in his grip most of Europe will remain till 1925.

"The end of the great calamity will mark a new political era for the old world. There will be left no empires or kingdoms, but the world will form a federation of the United States of Nations. There will remain only four great giants—the Anglo-Saxons, the Latins, the Slavs and the Mongolians."

Three years ago—only three—this store was opened. Seems like yesterday doesn't it? Yet in results and deeds done it might well have been the span of a score of years. From a store of 18,000 square feet of selling space and 54 salespeople, it has grown to 85,000 square feet of floor space—also two large warehouses—and staff of 250 people.

Started on the proven principle of cash buying and cash selling, best goods and lowest prices, courtesy, square dealing and consideration for all; energetic, progressive, enterprising, optimistic.

That its growth has been phenomenal is proof positive that Edmonton and this part of the great west had pressing need of such a shopping place. By your patronage and your loyalty you have helped us build a splendid store—your store. Tomorrow we celebrate with

DIRECTUM 1 LOSES GREAT RACE TO THREE YEAR OLD

William Won Matched Race for $6,000 in Straight Heats—Travelled First Mile in 2:01 3-4—Track in Perfect Condition.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Sept. 25.—By defeating Directum 1, in three straight heats yesterday afternoon, William became the world champion pacer. The match race was for a purse of $6,000.

In the first heat, Directum 1, cut down a two-length advantage and forced William to a whipping finish to win by a nose in 2:01 3-4. In the second heat the horses alternately showed in front, with Directum 1, holding the advantage at the upper turn. Here, William took the lead, holding it to the wire and winning by half a length in 2:01 1-4. William never was headed in the third heat, winning shown up in 2:02 1-2.

The track was in splendid condition, but a cold drizzle impeded the horses in the back stretch. This was the first time in racing history that paces with records of 2:00 or better, ever met in a matched race. William's record for a mile is 2:00, while Directum has a mark of 1:57 3-4. Although William is only a four-year-old, his owner stipulated that yesterday's race must be mile heats, best three in five, although Directum 1, is an eight-year-old. William was broken and has been driven in all his races by William Martin, after whom he was named. He made six starts last year as a three-year-old, and won 2:05 at a mile, when he paced two heats in 2:05 1-4 and 2:06. William broke all world records at the Grand Rapids grand circuit meeting in August when he won the 2:04 pace in straight heats, in 2:00 1-2, 2:00 and 2:02 1-2. He never lost a race of a single heat.

Last week Directum 1, paced an exhibition mile in 1:58 3-4 alongside a runner hitched to a sulky. Last year he paced the Goshen half mile track in 1:52 3-4. At Syracuse this year Directum 1, won the free-for-all pace by pacing two winning heats each in 2:00 flat after Frank Beatty Jr., had won the first heat in 2:02 1-2. William Martin drove William yesterday, while Thomas W. Murphy, the leading money winning driver of the Grand Circuit for several years past, was up behind Directum 1.

FOOTBALL LEAGUE WILL PROBABLY BE RE-ORGANIZED

Edmonton Canoe Club Has Dropped Out—Eskimos Have Lost Interest.

Just at present there are only two lives rugby clubs in the city, Variety and the Clites. The Canoe club has dropped out, and the Eskimos will also fade out of existence. The paddlers had difficulty in securing enough players to form a team. They asked to amalgamate with the Clites, but the latter turned them down, so lacking players, they could do nothing else but quit. The Eskimos and one desert turn out at Clifton park but even then the attendance at practice has been steadily falling off until last night only seven players showed up in uniform. It is probable that unless there is a change by Saturday the football fad will leave the ship and try for places on the other shore. Variety had 15 players out on Thursday, who were put through their paces by Coach Powik. Saturday will see the commencement of their serious work and they will start practicing signal plays.

RYLE WILL PLAY BILLIARD MATCH WITH GARDINER

Good Games in Tournament Yesterday—Sharp and Sampson Winners.

Tonight at the Empire billiard hall, Billy Ryle, the local champion will meet Dick Gardiner, who is playing at the Pantages theater, in a game of three cushion billiards, 50 points up. As Gardiner is a strong player and in top form Ryle will probably have to play a strong game to register a win. The game will start at eight o'clock sharp.

Two good games were played in the city championship three-cushion billiard tournament at the Empire billiard hall yesterday. Sharp, winning from Harford in the afternoon in a close game. The latter made the high run in the game but did not get the breaks of luck. Sharp played steadily from beginning to end and made many difficult shots.

The evening game between Sampson and Irgens was also fast. Sampson winning after a close contest all the way. Each player scored high runs of three. There will be no tournament games on Monday.

Following are yesterday's scores: Evening—Sharp 2-0; high runs 2-2. Evening game—Sampson 2-0; high runs 3-3. Irgens 2-0; high runs 3-3.

BRAVES LEADING NEW YORK GIANTS BY SEVEN GAMES

Boston Still Soaring While McGrawites Are Falling Down Badly.

Boston, Sept. 25.—Yesterday's double-header result in the Red Sox's lead over the McGrawites is 7 to 0 in the first game and 2 to 2 in the second, keeping the Sox in the lead of the eighth inning. As New York took to St. Louis this afternoon the home team increased its lead in the pennant race to seven games.

Giants Have Cracked. New York took their fifth straight game yesterday when they fell before St. Louis in a close contest, the score being 4 to 3. Dolan's hitting and fielding were features of the visitor's work. After New York took the score in the eighth Dolan drove back home with a double in the ninth for St. Louis' winning run.

Only Five Heats Attempted on Heavy Track When Rain Comes.

Columbus, O., Sept. 25.—Over a show track that was put entirely out of commission by a shower after being used for five heats, Columbus Grand Circuit racing was attempted yesterday afternoon.
